

Aristotle Ortanez

CEO and Director of Operations

A seasoned executive with over two decades of experience in the Australian education and healthcare sectors, Aristotle leads Kidney Australia with a vision to provide exceptional care and advocacy for kidney patients.

Holding a Masters degree in Marketing Communication from the University of Canberra, Aris brings a unique blend of marketing expertise, business acumen, and passion for healthcare to Kidney Australia. With a strong track record of leadership and collaboration, he is poised to drive the organisation's mission to deliver safe, quality services and advocacy for kidney patients in Australia, the Philippines, and beyond.

Under his guidance, Kidney Australia is committed to becoming the country's leading provider of clinical services for kidney patients, supported by a team of experienced nurses and healthcare professionals.

Professional experience:

- Co-Founder, Australian Medical Review Centre (2012)
- Member, Executive Bodies of Privately owned institutions in VET and Higher Education (2002 - 2015)
- Led teams of Marketing Managers and Admissions in international student and professional recruitment
- Established successful collaborations between private RTOs, TAFE, and Universities in Australia and overseas (2002 - 2015)
- Founder, My Pathfinder Recruitment Agency for international students and health professionals (2015 - present)

Key achievements:

- Co-founded the Australian Medical Review Centre, providing bridging programs for International Medical Graduates
- Developed and executed business growth strategies, fostering partnerships between education providers and healthcare organisations
- Built a recruitment agency to facilitate pathways for students and health professionals in Australia

Leading with purpose, delivering exceptional care, and improving lives through education and advocacy.

Copyright: No part of this document must be copied or distributed without the written consent of Kidney Australia Pty Ltd.

